MEMBER OF GRAY ARMY PASSES

Milus Wilson, Who Fought Here With Lee, Died Last Saturday.

SETTLED IN THE COUNTY

Mrs. Peter M. Bruner Succumbs After Short Illness. Moved Here From Lancaster 24 Years Ago.

Milus Wilson, one of the few men of this section who fought in the Battle of Gettysburg with the Confederate Army, died Saturday evening at 11 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Colestock, North Washington street. He was aged 74 years, 9 months and 4 days.

Mr. Wilson, who had served in the Confederate Army for nearly three years, came north with Lee and took part in the three days of fighting here. He was slightly wounded and when the Confederate troops withdrew, remained in Gettysburg. He was a member of a North Carolina regiment in which state he was born. Shortly afterward he married Miss Annie Plank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Plank, deceased, and learned the printing trade in the office of the Star and Sentinel. After some years in this work he took up farming and was located in various parts of the county until a few years ago when he came to Gettysburg.

Besides his wife he is survived by seven daughters and three sons, Mrs. Harry Eppelman, of Aspers; Mrs. Jesse Fissel, and Mrs. Emory Slaybaugh, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ellen Eiler, of York; Mrs. Peter Reigle, of near Bender's Church; Mrs. Samuel Steinhour, Baltimore; Mrs. John Colestock, of Gettysburg; C. J. Wilson, of Hampton; H. M. Wilson, of California, and R. A. Wilson, of Gettysburg; one brother, Joseph Wilson, of North Carolina, and twenty five grandchildren.

Bruner, proprietor of the City Hotel, died at her home on Chambersburg street suddenly Saturday evening at 5:20 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. She was aged 61 years, 6 months and 25 days. While Mrs. Bruner had been in declining health for several weeks it was thought that she was progressing rapidly toward recovery when on Saturday afternoon she suffered a heart attack which terminated in her sudden death several hours later.

Mrs. Bruner was born in Lancaster, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eshleman. In 1879 she married Peter M. Bruner, and moved to this place twenty four years ago. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons and one daughter, Guy G. Bruner, and Mrs. Wayne Keet, at home, and Dr. Samuel E. Bruner, of Camp Hill. She also leaves two grandchildren, and one brother, C. INCENDIARY MAY HAVE FIRED BARN

Structure of Ott Shields Burns in Early Morning Blaze.

Fire, which there is every reason to believe was started by an incendiary, completely destroyed the barn and Ford automobile early this morning of Ott Shields who lives south of Gettysburg between the Peach Orchard and West Confederate avenue.

The flames which were first seen at two o'clock in the morning attracted the majority of people in that section and were seen reflected against the sky as far off as Fairfield.

Counting the automobile and feed contained within the structure it is estimated that the loss amounted to $2,000. Mr. Shields was able to save his cattle and some miscellaneous articles.

Several peculiar incidents that happened about the farm recently lead the property owner to believe that some enemy or fire bug caused his barn to be burned to the ground. Friday night Mr. Shields said that he put his cattle out in the yard for the night but when he went to the barn the next morning he found the animals securely tied within the structure. Neighbors say they observed a man sulking about the premises at intervals.

These circumstances coupled with the fact that the fire originated at the back of the building away from the car or any other possible source give further credence to the belief of incendiary origin.

LAST CHANCE TO FILE TAX RETURN

Twenty Five Per Cent Rule Goes Into Effect Wednesday Morning.

FINE AND IMPRISONMENT

Can be Imposed Upon Delinquent Taxpayers at Discretion of Court, Total Return Less Than 1920.

Tuesday is the last opportunity for the people of Adams county to file their income tax returns.

The penalty for persons who fail to obey the law by not filing their returns before midnight is at least twenty five per cent of the gross tax. In addition the court has the privilege of fining the delinquent taxable $1,000 or inflicting two years' imprisonment or both.

V. J. Smarsh, deputy revenue collector of Adams county, does not have the authority to inflict the $1,000 fine or two years' imprisonment but he does have the power to recommend that the court take such action. In all such cases the recommendations of the deputy revenue collector carry heavy weight with the court.

"In contrast to last year," says Mr. Smarsh in a brief survey of his work for the past few months, "there has been no great rush at my office in the closing hours of work. On the contrary there has been a steady flow of people to the Federal building for many weeks. In the majority of instances they have made at least some attempt to work out their income tax, due to the fact, I believe, that they are getting more familiar with the work from year to year and are exerting more effort to help themselves."

Although he has no actual figures to substantiate his opinion, Mr. Smarsh believes that the total return is less than last year although there are more persons who are subject to tax. This is caused, by the general business depression which has kept

PATRIOTISM TOPIC OF HIS ADDRESS

Rev. Harry Daniels Main Speaker at Cashtown P. O. S. of A. Gathering.

"Patriotism" was the subject of an address delivered to a capacity audience in the Cashtown P. O. S. of A. hall Saturday night by Rev. Harry Daniels, pastor of the Gettysburg Methodist Church and former state chaplain of the P. O. S. of A.

E. W. Hartman, of Cashtown, presided at the meeting which was held for the purpose of stimulating patriotic feeling among the residents of that section of the county. It celebrated, however, no special event.

Rev. Mr. Daniels gave a brief resume of conditions existing in this country during the Revolutionary War when the people of the country were fighting for independence against Great Britain. He then traced the development of the nation from that time until the present day when "within the borders of our land are the greatest resources in the world."

"What is an American?" was a question propounded to the audience by the speaker. Answering the question himself, Rev. Mr. Daniels said that an American is a comparatively new type of man which has developed in a little more than a half century. "The American," he said, "is the product of the Slav, Frenchman, German, British, Italian, and men and women of other nationalities. Previous to about fifty years ago he had not had time to develop into the genuine American type." The Indian, he said, was not a genuine American type for he was but a savage.

In the closing part of his address the speaker made a strong plea for upholding of American ideals.

SEVEN KILLED IN RICHMOND FIRE

Collapse of Wall Buries Men. Seven Rescued From Debris.

LOSS OF ABOUT A MILLION

Masonry On Sixth Floor Topped Carrying Fire Fighters With It. Crash Came Without Warning.

Richmond, Va., March 14—Four firemen and one civilian are known to have been killed when the most spectacular blaze here in years Sunday afternoon swept the large furniture store of Jurgens Brothers in the heart of Richmond's shopping district. Two other civilians are believed buried in the ruins.

Seven other firemen are in hospitals as the result of the collapse of a wall which caught them on the roof of a lower building next to the burning structure. The collapse came in full view of a crowd of spectators estimated at 10,000. With the exception of two reserve companies the entire fire fighting apparatus of the city was utilized in a four-hour fight before the flames were brought under control.

Caught Under Wall

The dead: Firemen Thomas R. Johnson, Grover Cleveland Richardson and S. B. Guthrie of No. 2 Truck and J. B. Gallia of No. 1 Truck.

The bodies of the four firemen and one identified civilian had been taken from the ruins by 9:00 o'clock last night, with workers still searching for two other civilians.

The building in which the fire started was a six-story retail furniture store at the corner of Broad and Adams street, with a spring stock of goods containing what Fire Chief Joyne declared a line of furniture with highly inflammable polish. None of the firemen killed or injured was in this building.

The building next to the burning structure was one story lower and from its roof the firemen and a number of civilian volunteers were attacking the flames by digging holes through the wall of the Jurgens store to permit hose lines to be run through.

Without a second's warning the sixth-story wall of the burning building toppled over, catching the workers who were in its range and crashing the entire mass through to the basement, taking all five floors with it.

Veteran, Injured, Stays on Job

Seven firemen were dug from the debris and taken to hospitals. Capt. George M. Rogers of No. 8 Engine Company, a 17-year-old fire fighter, was one who went down, but escaped with a badly cut forehead. An ambulance surgeon patched him up and he went back to work. Three eye witnesses to the crash who escaped death through resting from their labors a few minutes, declared they distinctly saw three civilians, who were aiding the firemen, go down with the roof.

Shortly after this crash a large section of the wall collapsed. Twelve firemen working in the street narrowly escaped death by heeding yells of the crowd and scurrying to safety. Two were knocked down by the shock of the falling bricks.

While firemen and volunteer workers from the crowd were removing debris from the ground floor of the collapsed building one of its walls began to bulge inward, necessitating delay of an hour in rescue work while the wall was propped up. Damage to the Jurgens Building, which was completely wrecked, was estimated at $500,000, while that to the building next door, occupied by the Hopkins Furniture Company, was more than $300,000.

down the returns of big business men and business houses while most of the small earners managed to make at least $1,000 during 1920.

As a final warning to the people of Adams county so that they will not be subject to fine or imprisonment without due notice, the deputy says:

"Every single man, as is generally known, must make a return on all earnings above $1,000. Every married man must make a return if he earned more than $2,000. Many persons have an idea that they do not have to make a return if they have sufficient children to exempt them. If a man makes $2,400 a year and has two children he will not be taxed but he must file a return."

During the closing hours of business Mr. Smarsh admonishes all persons to have some knowledge of their income when they appear at the office as he will not have time to spend more than ten or fifteen minutes with each caller.

HARDING FEARS MEXICAN CRISIS

Obregon is Defiant, President Anxious For Ratification of Colombian Treaty.

Washington, March 14—President Obregon of Mexico has assumed a defiant attitude toward the United States with the result that relations between the two countries are rapidly approaching a crisis.

The seriousness of the situation is said to be one reason why President Harding is anxious to secure early ratification of the Colombian Treaty. It is explained that he wants the fairness of this Government's attitude toward Latin-America to be fully understood. President Obregon has made it known informally that Mexico will not agree to the conditions for recognition laid down by the Wilson administration, particularly that which relates to Article 27 of the Mexican Constitution, which is aimed at the destruction of American oil concessions and property holdings.

The Colby note insisted that Mexico must make clear that this provision "is not, and must not be interpreted as retroactive, or violative of valid property rights."

Harding Holds Conference

President Harding has realized from the time he was first nominated for the presidency that Mexico constituted one of his most serious problems. As an evidence of his interest he conferred Saturday with E. B. Scobey of Texas and Nelson O'Shaughnessy, who was charge d'affaires at Mexico City during the ambassadorship of Henry Lane Wilson. Before talking to Mr. Scobey and Mr. O'Shaughnessy the President conferred with Under Secretary of State Fletcher, and with D. R. Creager, who has been mentioned as the next probable ambassador to Mexico. The President also conferred with Secretary of State Hughes earlier in the morning.

CLEVER CAST IN LITTLE POLITICIAN

Comedy-Drama Pleased Large Audience in Biglerville Saturday Night.

Considering the fact that they had but two weeks' practice, the cast of "The Little Politician" gave a decidedly clever performance before an audience of 400 persons in Thomas Brothers hall, Biglerville, Saturday night.

The play, one of a number being given during the winter months by the amateur actors and actresses of the northern section of Adams county, was a comedy-drama, intermingling scenes of humor with those of more tense character.

The cast of characters was as follows: Honorable Pink Dots, the legislative member from Blank county, Sherrick Gilbert; Judge Fitzgerald, wanting office, Earl Fohl; Captain Henry Bradstreet, the boss, Myles Kleinfelter; Sidney Manning, candidate for prosecuting attorney, Maurice Fidler; James Mortimer, a merchant, Mark Knouse; Willie Witticus, a duke, Ray Oyler; Chief of Police, Mark Knouse; Mrs. Chidsey, wealthy widow, Mrs. Earl Fohl; Elsie Caulvin, a stenographer, Edrie Fidler; Mae Mortimer, a state capital belle, Belva Fohl.

By the efforts of these persons about $125 was cleared for the Biglerville Free Memorial Library. On each program was a page devoted to an explanation of the cause for which "The Little Politician" was given.

"The Biglerville Free Memorial Library," said the program statement, "owns five hundred books. There are on an average eighty books in circulation each week. The library is open every Thursday evening about seven o'clock. Books are entirely free and everyone is welcome. Biglerville is the only town in Adams county, excepting Cashtown, which has a free library. The Biglerville Library belongs to the town and is a memorial to the soldiers of the town and community who served in the World War."

HARDING POLICY IN SOUTH

KAISER IN ROLE OF PEACE MAKER

Says He Was Foiled in His Efforts By Other Nations of Europe.

TELLS HOW WAR STARTED

Wilhelm Describes His Plan to Organize League of Nations. Blames England For The War.

The Hague, March 14—In the book he has written for private distribution in an attempt to show that Great Britain was responsible for the World War, former Emperor William of Germany throughout always speaks of himself in the third person. He paints William II. as a man who tried for 30 years to maintain peace in Europe, but says he was foiled by the perfidious machinations of Great Britain, France and Russia.

As long ago as 1905, the former Kaiser says he tried to found a league of nations.

There Was A Leak

Although no full copy of the book is yet available and both the former Emperor's entourage and the Dutch and German governments are worried because of the publication of brief extracts from it, sufficient of the contents of the volume have leaked out to indicate the general trend of the entire work. The leak was principally due to the Berlin correspondent of the Rotterdam Maasbode.

The correspondent says the book begins with notes as far back as 1884 (William succeeded his father as king and emperor in 1888.)

Czar Hated French Republic

"In some places," says the Maasbode's correspondent, "the document is very interesting, especially notes of August 18, 1891, where he treats of the visit of William to Czar Alexander III. at Navrik, when the Czar said he hated the French Republic and wanted to restore a monarchy in France. But already, says the Kaiser, a Russian-French military agreement had been negotiated saying that in the event of the mobilization of any member of the Triple Alliance (Dreikund) a mobilization of French and Russian forces would be ordered immediately and these armies thrown into action at once."

Under date of April 18, 1898, the former Emperor wrote:

"An English proposal for an alliance of Germany against Russia is declined in order not to endanger the world's peace."

"At the same time Delcasse (then French Minister of Foreign Affairs) proposed to the German Ambassador in Paris a German-French agreement in order to prevent the Portuguese colonies falling under British influence. This proposal was not answered."

His Plan For League.

The former Emperor also claims that he drafted a project for a league of nations under date of March 24, 1905.

"A proposal," says the book, "was made by the former Kaiser, to the Czar and to Witte (then Russian Foreign Minister) to found a league of nations consisting of the Triple Alliance and the French and Russian Alliance, with the understanding also that other groups or separate countries may become members of the league. The proposal was accepted by the Czar and Witte. There was no question as to presidential power over this league."

Regarding the mission to Germany in February, 1912, of Viscount Haldane, then British Lord High Chancellor, the book says:

"German efforts to conclude neutrality with England failed in consequence of the absurd demand for a cessation of development of the German fleet through the curtailment of the building of new ships."

UNION CHIEFS MEET CUYLER

Railroad Men Refuse to Discuss Conference.

(By Associated Press)

Philadelphia, March 14—Warren S. Stone, head of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, W. S. Carter, for the firemen, L. E. Sheppard, of the conductors, were here today to confer with the T. Dewitte Cuyler, chairman of the association of railway executives and directors of the Pennsylvania railroad. Neither Mr. Cuyler nor the brotherhood men would talk regarding the conference. Mr. Stone denied that the meeting had anything directly to do with the proposed cut in wages announced by the Pennsylvania railroad last week.

TRY TO BREAK STRIKE

Publishers to Resume on Open Shop Method.

DRY LAW HARD ON SARDINE TRADE

Death of Free Lunch Counter Undermines Great Maine Industry.

Eastport, Me., March 14—The passing of the free lunch counter, incidental to the closing of saloon bars, was responsible in part for the depression in sardine prices, which packers say, are now below the cost of production and close to the pre-war figures. Competition resulting from increased importation of foreign sardines after the war was another factor.

Although the 1920 pack of Maine sardines is said to have been more than 500,000 cases short of that of 1919, more of last year's sardines are held in storage here than usual owing to the poor demand and the unwillingness of the packers to sell at present prices.

The average pack of Washington county factories, including those in this city and Lubec, is 2,250,000 cases of 100 cans each. Prospects for an average pack in the 1921 season, which opens April 15, are conditional, according to the packers, on an improvement of demand from jobbers, with labor and packing materials expected to be lower than last year.

C. E. WORKERS PLAN APRIL SCHEDULE

Committee Appointed to Arrange Program For County Convention.

The Christian Endeavor Executive Committee meeting was held at one o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Social rooms of the St. James Lutheran Church. The meeting was well attended with President C. C. Culp, Gettysburg, Vice president S. W. Frost, Arendtsville and the corresponding secretary Miss Mazie Krout present. In addition to these the Intermediate Superintendent, Miss Ester Bream, Biglerville, the Junior Superintendent, Miss Mary Scott, Aspers, the Superintendent of the lookout committee, Harold Creager, Gettysburg, the chairman of the finance committee, J. E. Sharretts, the past Councillor, Rev. Hummelbaugh and two district superintendents; Paul Hoffman, Wenksville, and C. E. Basehoar, Littlestown were in attendance.

The program of work for the month of April was announced which includes the following: (1) A contest for new members of the quiet hour, (2) lining up of delegates for the world's Christian Endeavor Convention to be held in New York in July, (3) the listing of alumni members of the various societies throughout the county.

Considerable progress was reported on the program for the month of March. A new Junior society has been formed at Christ Lutheran Church, Aspers, under the direction of Rev. Scott. The people of Arendtsville are planning for a joint intermediate C. E. Society. This will make the second intermediate Society in the county. The St. James Lutheran Society has organized an expert C. E. class and reports indicate that one or more such classes may be formed in other parts of the county.

Reports have been received that New York and Pennsylvania lead in the National competition for the greatest number of new subscribers to the Christian Endeavor World. It is further reported that two hundred new subscriptions will put Pennsylvania ahead. Adams county is endeavoring to secure one more new subscription from each society in the county.

Plans are being made for the annual county Christian Endeavor Convention. The following committees were appointed to arrange for this: A program committee consisting of Ivan G. Naugle, chairman, Gettysburg, Miss Mary Scott, Aspers, Miss Ester Bream, Biglerville. A second committee was appointed to arrange for the time and place of meeting. This committee consists of Miss Mazie Krout, chairman, Gettysburg, Harold Creager, Gettysburg and Miss Ethel Sheely, New Oxford.

The executive committee further voted to pay off $25 on the pledge made to the State Christian Endeavor Union in 1920. In order to pay off the balance of the State pledge the various societies throughout the county are asked to pay their portion to the County treasurer, Miss Marion Walters, Biglerville.

Nine-year-old Abram Flora, seeking a place to hide from schoolmates at Orrstown, Franklin county, last Friday afternoon, pulled open the door of the stable of Norman Hoch, adjoining the schoolhouse, and received the full charge of a gun Hoch had set in the stable for thieves, in his left leg. An artery was severed and the boy bled to death less than half an hour after the accident. Companions carried him to his home nearby.

The coroner's jury has recommended that Hoch be held for criminal negligence, the degree to be determined by the court in which he is tried. Hoch told the coroner's jury he had been bothered by wood thieves and had placed the gun in position so that when the door was opened it would be discharged. He admitted also that the weapon had been exploded on several occasions when the wind blew the door open.

With a number of playmates the boy had been playing hide-and-seek in the Orrstown school yard adjoining the Hoch property. When he was pursued by his companions he sought refuge in the stable. The weapon, which was so arranged that when the door opened a weight would fall and discharge it, sent its deadly load into the fleshy part of the boy's leg. He fell to the ground and his frightened companions carried him to his home. A physician was unable to stop the flow of blood.

'SQUIRE SAYS DRY ACT ALL WRONG

He's a Prohibitionist But Insists
Mr. Volstead Went Too Far.
Would Repeal it.

"The Volstead Act" is the subject of another interesting letter from S. S. W. Hammers to The Times. The letter follows:

"I have been a Prohibitionist all my life and I am here today to say to the American people that the Volstead Act is an outrageous imposition on the American people. It has started the American people to be a set of sneaks, liars, perjurers and bootleggers. It will never be enforced by the entire United States Army and Navy. Every man with brains should be in favor of its repeal.

The discontent bred in the United States through the Volstead Act will sooner or later breed worse things than Bolshevism. Perfect laws are intended to establish peace, happiness and create contentment, not to restrain people unreasonably in their choice of freedom.

When an old lady called at the drug store with her camphor bottle, used fifty years, perhaps, she obtained a little lump of camphor and desired a little spirit on the same. What did the Volstead Act do? Deprived that old sainted mother of a remedy she enjoyed all her life previous to that time. The reply was—"Go to a doctor and get a prescription." Yes, pay the doctor a fee of fifty cents or $1 for running the distillery and the druggists acting as the dispensers. Was there anything worse in the days of old John Barleycorn? Must the people tolerate prohibition and the great increase of crime that is following in its wake?

I believe in the Scriptures where it says "Give wine to him that is of heavy heart, and strong drink to him that is ready to perish with age, as well as with sickness. Let him drink and forget his sorrow and remember his misery no more." How many of us prohibitionists know that inns and roadhouses throughout all ages of the world served a purpose and use for social and topical interchange of information as well as being places in which to provide stimulants.

How many ministers in the pulpits have supported dry candidates for the Legislature and other public offices? Would it not be better for preachers to keep out of politics, preach Christ and Him crucified? There would be no need of wars or Volstead Acts. We believe that the Volstead Act will be repealed within two years. There are 5,000,000 people who are against liquor and 98,000,000 in favor of liquor as a beverage.

SHIP TREE TO CALIFORNIA

Forestry Department Replaces One That Died Of Rust.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 14—The Pennsylvania Department of Forestry has shipped a white ash tree, six feet high, to the Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, California. This tree will replace the white pine that was destroyed by the California plant quarantine authorities last month because they feared the gift from this state might introduce the disease known as white pine blister rust.

The white ash tree will be Pennsylvania's contribution to "The Forest of the States" that is being established on the Pacific Coast. It was grown by District Forester T. Roy Morton in the Greenwood Forest Tree Nursery, in Huntingdon county.

OFFERS PRESIDENT A COW

Illinois Man Ready To Send Along One Of Good Jersey Breed.

Washington, D. C., March 14—A cow has been offered President Harding by a Libertyville (Ill.) man, who in a letter received Saturday at the White House said it was his hobby "to raise very good Jersey cows and place them where they will be appreciated."

During the Taft regime, "Pauline," a prize Guernsey, furnished milk for the White House table.

Lack of a suitable home for a cow on the White House grounds may prevent the President from accepting the offer.

SALE REPORT

The sale of A. J. E. Harner, of New Oxford, was largely attended Saturday and the proceeds amounted to $3,358.33. It is estimated 350 persons were present. The highest horse brought $210 and the highest cow $101. A sow and pigs sold for $83. G. R. Thompson was the auctioneer and Sheely and Sheely, the clerks.

GOOSE SAVED BACON

Connellsville, Pa., March 14—How a goose, which was offered for sale at 50 cents a pound by Clyde Trout, could not Saturday be bought for love of money, is told by Trout, proprietor of the City Market. The goose routed a burglar and saved Trout several hundred dollars in cash and a quantity of meat. Trout kept the goose in the back room of the market in order to have it handy for any purchaser.

Friday night a burglar jimmied a rear window and was about to start operations on the safe when Miss Goose let loose with her melodious voice.

She "honked" so loudly that the intruder beat a hasty retreat, all persons living within a block were aroused from their slumbers and pedestrians stopped to ascertain the cause of the weird noise.

"That bird which yesterday would have been sold for 50 cents a pound will die of old age," declared Trout Saturday, when apprised of the circumstances. Now Miss Goose is a permanent resident of the market.

MAKES APPEAL FOR FARMERS

Wallace Says They Must Be Helped Through The Emergency.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—An appeal for "every good citizen" to do what he can to help the farmers through the period of depression, not for the sake of helping the farmer alone, but "for the sake of helping himself," was made Saturday by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, in his first formal statement.

Prices of farm products must rise and prices of other products come down before the normal relation between them has been restored, Mr. Wallace asserted. Talk of bringing prices back to a pre-war level, he declared, "is morally wrong and economically impossible," adding that "everybody would be better off" if an effort was made to bring about a price level, "say 70 per cent. above the pre-war normal."

Secretary Wallace said he doubted whether the people in the East "realize just what has happened to the farmers of the producing sections." Citing conditions in the central West as an example, he said that there, notwithstanding that "we have the finest rural civilization, taken as a whole, the world has ever seen," the farmers are now in "a most trying period and are suffering severe financial losses." Farmers throughout the nation, especially those in the South and West, he added, "are experiencing exactly the same trouble."

The widespread agricultural depression results from the high cost of production and because farm products have dropped "out of all proportion" to the prices of other things, Mr. Wallace said.

Chicago White Sox players and others indicted for the alleged throwing of the 1919 worlds series be taken off the court call. He ordered another hearing next Thursday when it is believed a date for trial will be set.

Judge Barrett, American League attorney, in speaking for a postponement said the prosecution had learned that Eddie Cicotte, Claude Williams and Joe Jackson, who confessed to the grand jury, would not be available as witnesses. Consequently, he said, the state could not obtain conviction on evidence he now had and would have to have more time to seek additional data.

GUARD AGAINST AN EPIDEMIC

Enrich and Strengthen Your Blood Now With That Splendid Tonic, Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Rich Red Blood Fights Germs
If You Are Pale, Overtired, Lacking in Energy and Enthusiasm, Your Blood is Probably Thin and Needs a Tonic.

The first and perhaps the only thing you can do to avoid the dangers that would come if there were an epidemic, is to take special care of your health. Keep your blood in good condition. The blood very often gets in bad shape, almost without your knowing it. How many times you feel tired and exhausted. You have an all-gone feeling for weeks. You don't care about eating or going anywhere. Your work becomes an effort and you wake up in the morning more tired than when you went to bed.

When you feel like that, look to your blood. You can be pretty sure it is in a weakened condition. You have been straining either mentally or physically and your blood has become clogged with poison.

Don't let yourself get run down. If you do not feel right, begin taking Gude's Pepto-Mangan and keep it up for awhile.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form and is sold by druggists everywhere. The liquid and tablets have exactly the same medicinal value. Buy whichever you prefer and be sure it is genuine "Gude's Pepto-Mangan." The name "Gude's" is on the package.

BY ALLMAN

"Pennywise and pound foolish" is truer now than ever

It's so easy to buy on the impulse of the moment because a suit or coat looks good, and the price seems low. For the moment even you can believe that you are saving money.

But the awakening comes too soon. The garment begins to look shabby because the style was all on the surface; the real tailoring and fine fabrics were lacking. You can't save money on low quality; it wears out too soon and you have buy again. But add a few dollars to the price, just enough to be sure of real value, and you more than double your chances of saving.

In fact if you invest in the Wooltex garments we have for you, the saving is absolutely certain. These clothes are made with such care for every detail, the materials are of such high quality that they will outwear ordinary clothes.

STUNTS AND THRILLS

William Fox presents
WILLIAM RUSSELL
The Iron Rider
by Frank L. Packard

A rousing story that will lift you out of your seat.

The story will amaze you—the action fire you with its thrills.

No other star can do the things that Russell does in the way he does them.

A picture you'll talk about all the way home from the theatre—don't miss it.

He took the honorable oath of the Iron Rider clan, and the same day its very name was disgraced.

A stirring story of a town where justice was burlesqued till the coming of the mysterious black-hooded Iron Rider.

A fascinating story by Frank L. Packard, who wrote "The Miracle Man."

A picture that tells how a man took the solemn oath his father had made sacred, and how his name was dragged in the mire.

A dramatic story of stern justice in a lawless town.

Marriage is Like a Furnace

When two people marry without love—then life becomes a furnace. Instead of a sacrament it becomes a crucible or a sacrifice. Jealousy, hatred, revenge feed its flames until it either destroys or purifies.

The great William D. Taylor production of "THE FURNACE" is one of the most tremendous presentations of this question yet conceived on the screen. You will be profoundly moved by the struggle of the people in "THE FURNACE" for happiness and love.
